

The Lord Is My Shepherd

The LORD, the LORD is my shep - herd, I need You guide me a - long sure paths, you are You spread a ta - ble be - fore me as my Good - ness and love will tend me ev - ery noth - ing more. You give me rest in green true to your name. Though I should walk in death's dark foes to look on. You soothe my head with day of my life. The LORD, the LORD is my mead - ows, set - ting me near calm wat - ers, val - ley, I fear no e - vil with you by my side, oil; my cup is more, is more than full, shep - herd. I will dwell in the house of the LORD, set - ting me near calm wat - ers, I fear no e - vil with you by my side, my cup is more, is more than full,

 I will dwell in the house of the LORD, where you re - vive my spir - it. your shep - herd's staff to com - fort me.

 my cup is more, is more than full.
 as long, as long as I shall live.

Text: Psalm 23 from The Psalter, International Commission on English in the Liturgy, Inc., 1994 Music: ©Paul D. Weber, 1998, inspired by a Slovak psalm tone